FIRST
BOOK OF CHRONICLES,
NAMED IN THE HEBREW
THE RECORDS OF THE TIMES.

Introductory Note.
The beginning of Chronicles is not a History up to the end of Ch. 9, which closes a series of Pedigrees of noble families in Israel, but as they are not arranged in Chronological order, and are full of repetitions, it is almost impossible to comprehend them as to historical import. Only here and there we see curious and interesting historical and ethnologic comments inserted, as in Ch. 4, vv. 21—23, 1 Chron. and Ch. 4, v. 39. Ch. 5, all through, Ch. 7, vv. 3—5, Ch. 8, vv. 8—9, Ch. 9, vv. 1—20, &c., intimating that a Negro population preceded the Hebrews, at least in the South-Eastern part of the country they conquered, and alluding to various colonizing expeditions not mentioned in the history of the Judges or Kings. But, owing to the chronological confusion of the author, it is difficult to fix the dates. Some were evidently close after Joshua, others in the anarchy after his death till the rise of Samuel and Saul, and others even after the period of Nebukadnezzer's ravages. Then the Pedigrees sometimes start at Sinai, and sometimes at the period of Samuel and David; others again in the days of Ezra, and Nehemiah, as far as I can trace, and at the end of them we hark back to the defeat of Saul at Gilboa, beginning at Ch. 10, which begins the real History, but of the House of David only, not of Israel as a Race.

The preceding pedigrees were probably compiled by one of the Ezras or Nehemiah's to settle the claims to restoration of offices and properties amongst the returning Transports who accompanied them back from Babel, and so were never put into chronological order, and were copied by the historian from the Records alluded to by the Second Nehemiah, as preserved in the caskets of the Temple—F. P.

the God of Israel and said, “If You

above it is clear that the words “Son”
and “Father” in Hebrew, and in Hebrew Genealogies, do not always mean, as with individuals, bodily Sons and Fathers, but frequently colonies, or villages founded or built by a man. Forgetfulness of this linguistic fact has led to endless blunders in Chronology, and even in Theology. But it should never be lost sight of in studying the Scriptures.—F. P.

² Note.—Ch. 3, v. 1. This Daniel, I suggest, was the Daniel referred to by Ezekiel in the often-quoted passage, “If Noah, Daniel,
and Job were in it,” for owing to the periods of time in which Ezekiel and the Prophet Daniel lived, it was impossible for Ezekiel to have referred to Daniel the Prophet, who was probably not born until after Ezekiel’s death. I note this because some sceptical writers have made that reference to a “Daniel” as a wise and good man, a ground of assault upon the book of Ezekiel.—F. P.

repeated in the Hebrew text before each name of Rephiah’s children clearly by the error of some ancient copyist; I therefore omit it.—F. P.

² “Son.”

³ Note.—Ch. 4, v. 9. “Jabez,” “Jabetz,” “Ruffian”? He evidently was a rough, wild lad.—F. P.
bless me, and extend my border, and Your hand goes with me,—and You keep me from harm,—I shall not be ruffled." And God granted what he asked.

11 And Kelub, the brother of Shukhah begot Makur; he was the father of Ashton. And Ashton founded the House of Rafa, and Pasah, and Thekniah, the founder of the city of Naksh. Those are the men of Rekah.

13 And the Beni Kenan were, Athnial, and Sheriah, and of the Lower Athnial.

14 And from Aunothi were begotten Aferah; and Sheriah, begot Joab, the founder of the lower Kharoshim:—for they are the Kharoshim.

15 And the sons of Kaleb-ben-Jafuneh were,—Aru, Alah, and Narm. And the sons of Alah were, Alah and Kenez.

16 And the sons of Jhalelal; Zif, and Zifah, Thrishah, and Ashral. And the sons of Azrah were, Jether, and Merad, and Afer, and Jalon, and Thahar, and Ishakh, the founder of Ashtemoah. Judiah his wife bore Jared, the founder of Gheder; and Kheber, the founder of Shoko Jekuthal the founder of Zanokh, these were the sons of Bethiah, the daughter of Pharaoh, who married Merad.

19 And the sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, the founder of Kailah, of the Gerannites, and Ashlemoah of the Makathites.

20 And the sons of Shimon were, Ammon, and Rina; and Ben-Kanan; and Tholam. And the sons of Ishai were Zokkath, and Ben-Zokkath.

21 The sons of Shilah were Ben-Jhodad; Ar, the founder of Likah; and Ladah, the founder of Marshab; and the clans of the houses of Bethabelath,—the splendid House of Ashba, and the Jokim, and the Princes of Kozna, and Joak, and Saraf, who were Masters in Moab, and resided in Lakhem, according to old records. They were Mechanists and settled in Colonies and Municipalities. They settled there to work for the king.

24 The sons of Shimeon, Nemual, and Jamin, Jarib, Zarak, Shaul. His son Shalim; his son Misbham; his son Mishma. And the sons of Mishma, were Khamwal; his son of Zaker, his son Shamai; and Shamai had sixteen sons, and 27 six daughters, but his brother had not many sons, nor did the whole family increase like the sons of Judah. But they occupied Barsha, and Moladah, and Khatsar-Shual, and Bilalah, and Atzam, and Tholad, and Bathnal, and Kharmah, and Ziklag; and Beth-Markaboth, and 30 Khatzer, and Susini, and Beth-Birai, and Sharam;—These were their Cities until the reign of David.

And their towns were Aitam, and 32 Ain-rimon, and Thokom, and Asahan;—five towns, and all the villages around the cities, whom they controlled, with their title-deeds from the family registers, and records of restored estates, and successions, and property of eldest sons; who were, Joal, and Jheb-ben-Joshibiah, ben-Seriah-ben-Asial; and Aliwani 35 and Jakab, and Ishokhiah, and 36 Asiah, and Adial, and Isimal, and Beniah; and Ziza-ben-Shifai-ben-Alon-ben-Jiahad-ben-Shimi-ben-Shamiah; These became Princes by name, in their clans, and extended the houses of their ancestors,—when 39 they emigrated to Gheder in the eastern plain, to seek pasture for their flocks, and found rich and good pasture and a wide country ready for them, and quiet and peaceable, for the previous inhabitants there were Blacks. 40 So those mentioned by 41 name, above, advanced in the days of Hezekiah King of Judah, and attacked their tents, and the wells that they found there, and succeeded them until this day, and settled in their place,—for there was pasture for their flocks. Some of the descendants of Simeon, five hundred men, went from them to Mount Sair, with Flatiah, and Nariah, and Refiah, and Azial-ben-Ishai was at their head, and attacked the remnant of 43 the refugees of the Amalakites;—and they reside there to this day.

Now for the Beni Reuben, the first-born of Israel. For he was the First-born; but because he defiled the bed of his father, his birthright was given to the Beni Joseph-ben-Israel, and he was not recorded as the eldest, but Judah dominated his brothers, and became our Leader, although the Birthright belonged to Joseph.

The Beni Reuben, the Firstborn of Israel.

Hanok, and Falwa, Hazron, and Karmi.

The Beni Joal; his son Shamiah, his son Gog, his son Shamai, his son Mikah, his son Raiah, his son Bal; his son Bariah, whom Thilgath-Pilneser, King of Ashur, transported, when he was Prince of the Reubenites.

Now for his brothers, by their clans, genealogies, and birth Chiefs,—Jailal, and Zakariah and Bela-ben-Azaz, ben-Shema-ben-Joal;—He occupied Aroar, and Nebo, and Bal-amon; and eastward he occupied as far as the Pass of the Desert from the river Frath, for they had many herds in the land of Gilad, and in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell beneath their power: so they resided in their tents over all the extent of the east from Gilad.

Now for the Beni Gad, next to them;—

They occupied the country of Bashan, as far as Salkah;—

Joal was the Chief, and Shafam his Lieutenant, who managed and governed in Bashan. And their relatives, by their Ancestral Houses, were, Mikal, and Mesholam, and Sheba, and Jori, and Jakam, and Zia, and Aber;—seven.

These are the Beni Abikhil-ben-Hori - ben - Jarokh, ben - Gilad - ben - Mikal - ben - Jeshish, - ben-Jahko, - ben-Zaz-ben-Akh, - ben-Abdial, - ben-Guni, Chiefs of their Ancestral Houses.

And they resided in Gilad, in Bashan, and its villages; and in all the pastures of Sharon, as far as they extended. All of them had birth Registers in the days of Jotham, King of Judah, and in the days of Jarabam, King of Israel.

The Beni Reuben and Gad, and the Half-tribe of Manasseh;—

Of brave men who bore shield and sword, and drew the bow, and were disciplined for war, there were forty-four thousand, seven hundred and sixty, who could go out to fight; and they made war with the Hagarites, and itur, and Nafish, and Nodab, and overpowered them, and the Hagarites were delivered to their hand, with all their forces, for they cried to God in the battle, and He was helpful to them, because they trusted on Him; so they captured from their herds fifty thousand camels; and two hundred and fifty thousand sheep; and of human beings a hundred thousand; for many fell wounded; for the battle was from God; and they resided in their place; until the Transportation.

The sons of the Half-tribe of Manasseh also settled in Bashan at Balhermon and Senir and Mount Hermon—They were numerous. And these are the chiefs of their Ancestral Houses;—That is—Afer, and Ishi, and Alia, and Azial, and Irmiah, and Hodaviah; and Jakhdial;—Great Princes;—Powerful Men; named Chiefs of Ancestral Houses. But they revolted from the God of their fathers; and wandered after the Gods of the people of the Country, whom God had destroyed before them. The God of Israel consequently stirred up the temper of Pul, King of Ashur, and of Thilgath-Pilneser, King of Ashur, who transported the Reubenites, and Gadites, and the Half-tribe of Manasseh, and carried them to Khalakh, and Khabor, and Harat, and to the river of Gozan;—to this day.

The Beni Levi.

Gershom, and Morari; And the Beni Kahth; Amram, and Ittar, and Khabron, and Azial; And the Beni Amram;—Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam; And the Beni Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu; Alizar, and Aitheram. 1 Note.—Ch. 5, v. 26. These districts are now provinces of Armenia and Baku in the Russian Empire and Azerbaijan in Northern Persia, on the shores of the Caspian Sea.—F. F and Akhitub begot Zadok; and Zadok begot Akhimatz; and Azariah begot Jokhanan; and Jokhanan begot Azeriah, who was Priest in the House that Solomon built at Jerusalem.

And Azeriah begot Amariah; and Amariah begot Akhitub; and Akhitub begot Zadok; and Zadok begot Shalom; and Shalom begot Khilkiah, and Khilkiah begot Azariah; and Azariah begot Seriah; and Seriah begot Jhozadak; and Jhozadak was taken with the Transports of the LORD from Judah and Jerusalem, by the hand of Nebukadnezzar.

6 The sons of Levi.

And these are the names of the sons of Gershon, Libni and Shimmiah.

3 And the sons of Kaht;—Amram, and Itzahr, and Khabron, and Azial.

And these are the clans of Levi by their ancestry:

9 And the Beni Alkomah;—Amasi, Akhimoth; his son, Alkanah; his son Alkanah; his son, Yzofit; and his son, Nakkath; his son Aliab; his son, Irokh; his son, Alkanah.

13 Now the Beni Shamuael, Habkor, and Shenii, and Abiah.

14 The sons of Merari; Makkhi, Libni; his son Shimai; his son, Azah; his son, Shamaa; his son, Khagia; his son, Asiah.

16 These were appointed by David over the Choir of the House of the LORD when he fixed the Ark, and they were with the Singers before the Tabernacle, in the Hall of Assembly with the Choir, until Solomon built the House of the LORD in Jerusalem. And they attended to their duties in succession.

These also attended with their 18 descendants.

And after him;

24 Asaph was appointed at his right hand.

Then the Beni Morari; their 29 brother on the left hand:

With their relatives the Levites, 33 Attendants, and all the Ministers of the Tabernacle of the House of God.

But Aaron and his Descendants 34 offered incense on the Altar, with the Burnt-offerings; and upon the Altar of Incense, with all the Ministrations of the Sanctuary, and to expiate for Israel, according to all that Moses, the Servant of God, commanded.

Now these were the Beni Aaron; 35 his son, Alazar; his son Phinehas; his son, Abishua; his son, Buki; his son, Azi; his son, Zerakhiah; his son, Merioth; his son, Ameriah; his son, Akhitub; his son, Zadok; his son, Akhimiter.

And these were their residences 39 and castles in their borders:

To the Beni Aaron;—for the Clan of the Kahthites, for whom the lot came out,—they gave Hebron, in the land 40 of Judah, with the pastures around it; with the Town fields, but they 41 gave the villages to Caleb—ben—Jefuneh.

They also gave to the Beni Aaron, 42 the Cities of Refuge;—Hebron; and Libnath with their pastures, and Jatir, and Ashtemoah, with their pastures; and Hilen, with its pastures; and Debir with its pastures; and 44 Ashan with its pastures; and Bethshemesh, with its pastures.

And from the tribe of Benjamin, 45
Geba, with its pastures; and Alemeth, with its pastures; and Anathoth, with its pastures; all the cities were thirteen cities. Each city with its pastures.

46 And to the others of the Beni Kahath; from the Clans of the Tribes;—From the villages of the Half-tribe of Menasseh;—ten Cities by lot;
47 And to the Beni Gershon; from the Clans of the Tribe of Issakar and the Tribe of Ashur; and from the Tribe of Naftali, and from the Tribe of Menasseh, in Bashan, thirteen cities;
48 To the Beni Merari; from the Clans of the Tribe of Reuben, and the Tribe of Gad, and the Tribe of Zebulon; Twelve Cities by lot. Thus the Children of Israel gave the Cities and their pastures.
49 They also gave by lot, from the Tribe of the Children of Judah, and from the Tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the Tribe of the children of Benjamin, those cities mentioned by name.
50 But some of the Clans of the Beni Kahath had cities in the bounds of the Tribe of Ephraim. They also gave to them these Cities of Refuge;—Shekem, with its pastures in Mount Ephraim; and Gebir, with its pastures, Jakman, with its pastures; and Beth-horon, with its pastures; and Ailon, with its pastures; and Beth-rimon, with its pastures; And from the villages of the Tribe of Menasseh, and its pastures; and Bilam, and its suburbs; To the other clans of the Beni Kahath.
51 To the Beni Gershon; From the Clans of the Half-tribe of Menasseh;—Golan, in Bashan, and its pastures; and Asheroth; with its pastures;
52 And from the Tribe of Issakar, Kadesh, and its pastures; and Da-brath, and its pastures; and Remoth, with its pastures; and Anam, and its pastures;
53 And from the Tribe of Ashur, Mashal, and its pastures; and Abdon, and its pastures; and Khagok, with its pastures; and Rekhoth, with its pastures;
54 And from the Tribe of Naftali; Kadesh, in Gilgal; with its pastures; and Khamon, and its pastures; Krithaim, with its pastures;
55 To the rest of the Beni Merari; From the Tribe of Zebulon Rimono, and its pastures; Thabor, and its pastures; and over the Jordan, Jericho-on-the-east-of-Jordan. From the Tribe of Reuben; Bezer in the Desert, and its pastures; and Jhath-zah, with its pastures; and Kedemoth, and its pastures; and Mifath, with its pastures;
56 And from the tribe of Gad; Ramoth-in-Gilgal, with its pastures; and Makkham, with its pastures; and Heshbon, with its pastures; and Jazer, with its pastures.
57 But about the Beni Issakar: Tholah, and Phuah, Jashub, and Shimron: four.
58 And the Beni Tholah;—Azi, Rafiah, and Iri, and Jakmi, and Ibsam, and Shimuel, Chiefs of Ancestral Houses of Tholah. They were Great men in their generations. They numbered in the days of David twenty-two thousand and six hundred.
59 And the Beni Azi; Izarkhiah; and the Beni Izarkhiah, Mikal, and Abadijah, and Joal, Ishiah, and Kimishah, All of them Chiefs, who could go up by their genealogies to Ancestral Houses. Their disciplined army for war was thirty-six thousand, for they had many wives and children. Their relatives of all the Clans of Issakar, the disciplined men, were eighty-seven thousand,—all enrolled.
60 Benjamin; Bela, and Beker, Jediaal:—three.
61 And the Beni Bela;—Azbon, and Azi, and Azial, and Irinmoth, and Arij;—five, Chiefs of Ancestral Houses, powerful men, and their registered forces were twenty-two thousand and thirty-four.

63 And the Beni Jediaal;—Bilhah, and Bani; Bilhun, Jaish, and Benjamin, and Aliod, and Kananah, and Zithom, and Tharshish, Akshshakhar.
64 All these of the Beni Jediaal were Ancestral Chiefs,—with disciplined men, seventeen thousand and two hundred, able to march with the army to battle. Beside the Shupites and Khupites, the followers of Air, and the Knights who followed Akker.
65 The Beni Naftali, Jekhzial, and Guni, and Jazer, and Shalum, sons of Bilhah.

14 The Beni Menasseh.

Asriel, whom his secondary wife bore;—The Aramith bore Makir, the founder of Gilad. And Makir married women from the Khupites, and the Shupites; and the name of his wife was Makah. And the name of his second son was Zelofoth; and Zelofoth had beautiful daughters. But Makah, the wife of Makir bore a son, and called his name Feresh, and his brother's name was Sheresh, and his sons Aulam, and Rakem.

17 And the sons of Aulam were Bedan.—These were the sons of Gilad-ben-Makir-ben-Menasseh. And his sister Hamoleketh bore Aishohar, and Abiezir, and Makkah. And the sons of Shamida were, Akhian, and Shekem, and Likkai, and Abiam.

But the men of Gath, natives of the country killed them, when they went down to steal their cattle. And Ephraim, their father, mourned for them many days, but his friends came to him to comfort him. Then he went to his wife and she bore a son, and he called his name Beriah, because suffering had come to his house. And he had a daughter Sharrah who founded Bethhoron the Lower, and the Higher, and Azan-sharah. Refakath was his son, and Reshef, and his son Thekah, and his son Thakhath, and his son Adan, and his son Amihud, his son Alischah, his son Kan, his son Jhoshua; and they possessed and settled Beth-el, and its Hamlets, and to the east Naran and Marab, Gezer, and its Hamlets, and Shekum, and its Hamlets, to Azah, and its Hamlets. Princely Chiefs, with pedigrees, with a number of twenty-six thousand men for war and battle. Now Benjamin begot, Bela, his firstborn, Ashbal the second, and Akhrakh, the third. Nokbah, the fourth, and Refa, the fifth. And Bela had sons:—Adar, and Ner, and Abihud, and Abishua, and Neman, and Akhokh, and Gera, and Shaphat, and Kharom. These are a few descendants:—those of them who are Ancestral Chiefs to the settlers in Geba whom they emigrated with to Makath, when Naman, and Akhokham, and Gera, emigrated together; he also begot Azah, and Ahikhud. He also begot Mulattoes in the plain of Moab, from imported Kushites and from his barbarian wives. So he begot from Khosh, his wife, Jobab, Zibiah, and Misha, and Malkam; Javatz, and Shabia, and Mirmah. These sons of his were Ancestral Chiefs. And from the Khusites he begot, Afitub, and Alfal. And the sons of Alfal;—

descendants. They resided in Jeru-31 salem.

30 was Makah, and his firstborn son was Abdon, then Tzur, and Kish,

48 the sons of Aalam became men of 49 great distinction for skill with the 50 bow, and he had many sons and a 51 hundred and fifty grandchildren.—
All these were of the Beni Benjamin.

For all Israel were registered, and the books can be consulted amongst the records of the Kings of Israel.1

Pedigrees of Judean Nobles.

Judson, however, was transported to Babel for its transgressions. But the former settlers who possessed those Cities of Israel were the Priests, the Levites, and their attendants. But in Jerusalem some of the Beni Judah settled and some of the Beni Benjamin, and some of the Tribe of Ephraim text further supports my view that all these Pedigrees are portions or copies of the evidence of ancestry produced by claimants to estates, by the returned transports from Babylon when proving their claims before the First Nehemiah and Ezra about 536 B.C., and which some subsequent compiler had copied out indiscriminately from the Records of the Land Registry Office at Jerusalem long after, and by the error of old Transcribers

they have been confused with the Book called in Hebrew "The Events of the Ages" and by us "Chronicles." I call attention to this to remove a common error which looks on them as sacred documents.—F. F.
kam-ben - Khashabiah, of the Beni Merari; and Bakbakar, Kherish, and Galal, and Mathaniah-ben-Mika-ben-Zikri, ben-Asaf; and Abadiah-ben-Shemiah, ben-Galal-ben-Jaduthem;-- and Beerahiah, ben-Asa, ben-Alkanah, who settled in the villages of the Netofathi; with the Doorkeepers, Shalum, Akub, and Talmon, and Akhiman, and their companions.
Shalum was their Chief; and they were settled at the east of the King's Gate. They were the Guards for the camps of the Levites. And Shalum-ben-Kora-ben-Abisa-ben-Korakh and his companions of his Ancestral House of the Koreites, were to superintend the execution of the Service.
They guarded the Thresholds of the Hall, for their ancestors had been over the Camp of the LORD as Guards of the entry. And Phinehas-ben-Eliezer was Prince over them, before the LORD.
Zekariah-ben-Meshelemiah, was Door-opener at the Hall of Assembly.
All of them were chosen as Gatekeepers to the number of two hundred and twelve in their family villages.
They were appointed by David and Samuel to attend to their duties;
and they and their descendants; are attendants at the Door of the House of the LORD, as they were at the House of the Tent, as Guards; they were at the Gates on the four sides;¹
—the East, the West, the North and the South. And their relatives came from their villages for periods of seven days, in their turns along with them. But the Levites who were the Four Chiefs, of the Gates officially superintended the Lodgings, and the Treasury of the House of God, and lodged all who came up for duty; and they were at the Opening Services from morning to morning. They also had to attend 28 to the vessels; for they brought them in by number, and returned back by number. And others of them were 29 Officers over the furniture; and over the Sacred Vessels; and over the flour; and wine, and oil, and incense, and spices. But some from the 30 descendants of the Priests prepared the confection of spices.
And Mathethiah, of the Levites, 31
who was the firstborn to Korakh was appointed over the bakers. But 32 others from the descendants of Kahath, with their relatives superintended the Shew-bread, to arrange it Sabbath by Sabbath.
And these are the Ancestral Chiefs of the Levite Singers, exempt from duty in the sanctuaries,—for they were at work day and night. They 34 are the Ancestral Chiefs, Chiefs
according to their pedigrees,—who resided in Jerusalem.
And in Gibaon resided the Beni 35 Gibaon, Janal, and the name of his wife was Makah, and his firstborn 36
son was Abdon, and Tzur, and Ner, and Nadab,—and Gedor, and Akhio, 37
and Zekeriah, and Mikloth. And 38 Mikloth begot Shimam, and they settled in Jerusalem near their relatives.
And Ner begot Kish; and Kish 39
begot Shaul; and Shaul begot Jionathan; and Mikishua; and Abinadab; and Ashbal. And the 40 sons of Jionathan were Merib-Bal, and Meribegot Mikah. And the 41 sons of Mikah were Pithen, and Melek, and Thakhrha, and Akhaz, 42
who begot Jarab; and Jarab begot Alemath, and Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri begot Motza; and Motza 43
begot Binaa, Rishah, his son, Alasah his son, Atzal his son, and Atzal had 44
six sons, and these are their names:—
Azrikaaim, his firstborn, and Ishmaal, and Shariah, and Abadiah, and Khami,—These are the sons of Atzal.

FIRST
BOOK OF CHRONICLES,
NAMED IN THE HEBREW
THE RECORDS OF THE TIMES.¹
HISTORY OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID.—BOOK I.

(1056 B.C.) Introductory Chapter.

10 The Philistines were at war with Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell 2 defeated on the hills of Gilboa where the Philistines pressed on after Saul,
and after his sons, and the Philistines had slain Jonathon, and Abinadab, 3 and Melechshua, the sons of Saul; so the battle was heavy upon Saul, and the Archers opposed him with their bows, and he was wounded by the archers. Saul consequently said to his Squire, “Draw your sword and stab me with it, for these blackguards are coming, and will insult me.”
But his Squire was not willing for he was terribly afraid, Saul therefore took the sword and fell upon it.

5 When the Squire saw Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died.
6 Thus Saul and his three sons, with all his house, died at one time.
7 When all the men of Israel who were on the Plain saw how they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead; they abandoned their villages and fled, and the Philistines advanced and occupied them.
8 But morning arrived, and the Philistines came to strip the wounded,
and found Saul and his sons fallen 9 on Mount Gilboa. So they stripped him and took off his head and his armour, and sent them round to the country of the Philistines to exhibit them to their Idols and People.
10 They also placed his arms in the House of their Gods, and fixed his head on the House of Dagon.

But the Forces occupying Jabesh 11
Gilad heard of all that the Philistines had done to Saul, so they arose every 12 man of the army, and carried off the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh. Then they fasted seven days.
Thus Saul died in the transgression 13 that he transgressed against the LORD,—about the Command of the LORD which he did not obey. And also for going to enquire of a Spirit-raiser, instead of going to the LORD.
Thus he was killed, and the Kingship transferred to David, the Son of Jesse.

(1048 B.C.) History of the House of David.

The forces of Israel ultimately 11 collected to David at Hebron, and said, “We are your bones and your flesh. In the past also, while Saul 2 existed as King, you led out and brought back Israel, and your EVER-LIVING GOD said to you, ‘You shall Shepherd My People Israel, and you shall be Prince over My People Israel.’”

(1048 B.C.) Jerusalem Assailed and Captured.

Then all the Parliament of Israel 3 came to the King at Hebron, and made a Treaty with David at Hebron before the LORD, and elected David as King over Israel, as the LORD had promised by the means of Samuel.

David and the army of Israel then 4 marched to Jerusalem; — It was Jebus, — and the Jebusites, the 5
natives of the country, were there, and the inhabitants of Jebus said, 6

First Chronicles. The actual history only begins, however, at this point, the preceding nine chapters having no connection with it.
—F. F.
"You cannot get in here," yet David captured the Fortress of Zion,—now the City of David,—and David proclaimed, "Whoever first defeats the Jebusites, shall be the Chief Governor." And Joab-ben-Zeruiah advanced and became the Chief. But David settled in the Fortress, therefore it was called the City of David. He also walled it around, from Miloa, and to its circuit; but Joab was Governor of the City. Thus David advanced and was great, for the LORD of Hosts was with him.

List of the Generals.

10 Now these are the leading Generals who were with David, who joined themselves with him to confirm him, with the Forces of Israel, in his Kingship over Israel as the LORD had promised. They are copied from the Roll of Generals who were with David:

Jashabam, the son of a Hakmonite, was the chief of the Staff-Officers. He extended his spear over three hundred slain in one action.

12 And next to him Alazur-ben-Dodo the Hakokite. He was a General of the Staff. He was with David at Pasdamim, when the Philishtim advanced to battle there, and a portion of the field was filled with barley, and the force fled before the Philishtim.

14 But they were rallied in the middle of that plot, and he defended it, and defeated the Philishtim, and the LORD won a great victory. These three went down, from the Chiefs' Staff Officers, in discontent to David when in the cave of Adulam, and when a troop of the Philishtim was encamped in the vale of Refaim while David was in a trap,—for the Philishtim then garrisoned Bethlehem.

17 David, however, was parched with thirst and asked, "Who will get me a drink of water from the Well of Bethlehem? That by the Gate?" So the three broke through the Camp of the Philishtim and drew water from the well which is by the Gate of Bethlehem, and lifted it up and brought to David. Then David was not willing to drink it, but poured it out to the Ever-living, and exclaimed;—"May I be cursed by my GOD if I do! This is the blood of those men! Should I drink in their lives? For they went with their lives,—and I am not inclined to drink them."

These three heroes did that. And Abshai, the brother of Joab, was a General of the Staff. He extended his spear over three hundred slain. But he was not equal to the Three. His rank was on the Second Staff. He was their Commander;—but he was not one of the Three.

Beniah-ben-Jhoiada,—was the son of a brave man of Kabaz. He defeated the two Champions of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit, on a snowy day. He also defeated the Egyptian Leader,—a man of five cubits high, when the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam, but he went at him with a club, and wrenched the spear from the hand of the Egyptian, and slew him with his own spear! Beniah-ben-Jhoiada did this, so he ranked with the Heroes of the Staff. He ranked with the Staff-Officers, but did not attain to the Three. But David appointed him over his Council.

And the Generals of the Army were;—Ashahel the brother of Joab; Alkanan-ben-Dodo, of Bethlehem; Shamoth, the Harorite; Khatetz, the Pelanite; Aira-ben-Akosh, the Thequate; Abiazar, the Anethothite; Sibki, the Hushathite; Aili, the Akhoki; Mahri, the Netofathite; Kheled-ben-Bannah, the Netofathith; Aithi-ben-Bibi, from Gibath of the Beni Benjamin; Beniah, the Pirathon; Khori of Mahli-gashi; Abial, the Aribathite; Azmuth, the Bakrhomite; Alakebah, the Shalbani; the sons of Hashem, the Ghizanite; Johnathan-ben-Shaga, the Hararite; Akham-ben-Sakar, the Hararite; Alifal-ben-Aur, the Makrathite; Akhiah, the Pelonite; Khetzro, the Carmelite; Nari-ben-Azbi, Joal, the brother of Nathan, Nubkhar-ben-Hagri; Zelek, the Amonite; Nakhri, the Berothite,—the Armorbearer of Joab-ben-Zeruiah. Aira, the Ithrite; Gareb, the Ithrite; Auriah, the Hitite; Zabad-ben-Akhi; Adina-ben-Shiza, the Reubenite,—Chief of the Reubenites,—and he went with the Thirty—Khanan-ben-Makah, and Joshaft, the Mithnite; Aziah, the Ashtarothite; Shama, Javal, the sons of Kotham, the Ararite; Jadiel-ben-Shimri, and Jokha his brother, the Thitzite; Alial, the Makkavite; and Iribi, and Joshuaiah, the sons of Alnam; and Ithmah, the Moabite, Alial, and Aved, Jashial, the Metzobite.

12 And these came to David at Ziklag while he was shut out from the favour of Saul-ben-Kish, and they were among the hard fighters in battle. They could draw the bow with both right and left hand, in sling stones or in shooting arrows. They were from Benjamin—tribesmen of Saul. The Commanders were Akhlaier, and Joash, sons of Shamaa, the Ghibaonite; and Izual, and Felet, sons of Azmuth; and Berakah, and Alia, the Anathothite; and Ishmaiah, the Ghibaonite, a General in the Thirty, and who Commanded the Thirty; Jeremiah, and Jakhaziel, and Jokhanan, and Jozabad the Gherathite; Alnazi and Jerimoto, and Baliah, and Semberiah, and Shefatiah, the Kharufite; Akanah, and Ishiah, and Azaral, and Japazer, Jashabam, and Joalah, and Zebadiah, sons of Jerokham, from Ghedar.

8 And from the Gadites there deserted to David, when in hiding in the Desert, brave men, Princes of war in battle. Trained to the shield and spear, and their faces were faces of lions, and they were swift as gazelles on the hills. Their Commander was Azer; Abadiah, the Second; Aliab, the Third; Mishmanah, the Fourth; Iremiah, the Fifth; Attu, the Sixth; Alial, the Seventh; Jokhanan, the Eighth; Alsabad, the Ninth; Iremihio, the Tenth; Makabani, the Eleventh.

(1058 B.C.) The Israelite Generals who elected David as King.

And these are from the records of the Generals of Division of the Army, who came to David at Hebron, to transfer the Kingship of Saul to him, as the EVER-LIVING commanded:

With the Princes of the Beni Judah; carrying shield and spear—Six thousand, eight hundred, disciplined for war;

From the Beni Simeon; brave men of war, Seven thousand, one hundred;

From the Beni Levi,—Four thousand, six hundred;

And Jhoiada the Prince of the Descendants from Aaron, and with him,—Three thousand and seven hundred;

And Zadok a young brave man, and the Officers of his father’s family,—Twenty-two;

And from the Beni Benjamin, the Tribe of Saul, Three thousand,—for until then the majority kept their duty to the House of Saul;

From the Beni Ephraim,—Twenty thousand and eight hundred brave men of fame in their Ancestral Houses. 20,800

And from the half tribe of Menasseh, eighteen thousand, who were specified by their names to go to the Election of David to the Kingship; 18,000

And from the Beni Issakar, of persons who understood the requirements of the times, what was best for Israel to do, two hundred, and all their tribe were at their command. 200

From Zebulon, there came an army disciplined for war, with all the equipments for battle, fifty thousand, disciplined and unwavering. 50,000

And from Naftali, a thousand Officers, and with them twenty-seven thousand shield and spear men. 28,000

And from the Danites, equipped for battle, twenty-eight thousand, six hundred. 28,600

And from Asher, there arrived an army equipped for battle of forty thousand. 40,000

And over from the Jordan; From the Reubenites, and Gadites, and the Half Tribe of Menasseh, with all the military equipments for battle, a hundred and twenty thousand. 120,000

All these were drilled soldiers, perfectly disciplined to their hearts, who came to Hebron to elect David to the Kingship over all Israel; and also all the rest of Israel were of one heart to elect David to the Kingship, and were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, with their friends. Their connections also from as far off as Issakar, and Zebulon, and Naftali, brought bread on asses and camels and mules, with cattle, with corn, meal, dried figs, raisins; and wine, and oil, and bullocks and sheep in abundance. For all Israel was glad.¹

(1045 B.C.) David asks the Generals to have their Election of him Confirmed by a National Civilian Voting.

13 David afterwards consulted with the Generals, and Captains, and all the Princes; and then David said to the Parliament of Israel;

"If it seems good to you, and pleasing to our Ever-living God, send to our brothers,—the remainder of our brothers in all the districts of Israel,—and with them to the Priests and Levites in the suburbs of their Cities, let them collect to us, and we will seek the Ark of our Ever-living God, for that has not been attended to in the days of Saul."

And all the Parliament replied, "Let that be done"; for the thing was right in the sight of all the People.

The Ark brought up from Kirith Jarim.

David consequently convoked the Representatives of all Israel from the River of Mitzer, to the Pass of Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from Kirith-Jarim. Then David, and the Representatives of Israel went up to the Corporation of Kirith-Jarim, which is in Judah, to bring up the Ark of God,—the Lord dwelling with the Kerubim, who are represented there,—and carried the Ark of God upon a new wagon from the House of Abinadab; and Azah, and Akhio, the Priests, were in the wagon, while David and the Representatives of Israel rejoiced with all their power before God, with harps, and lutes, and drums, and timbrels, and trumpets, and advanced as far as Kidensbarn, when Azah extended his hand to support the Ark, for the oxen were restive. But the anger of the Lord burnt against Azah, so he struck him, because he had extended his hand upon the Ark—so he died there before God!

David, however, was angry that the Lord had broken Azah, so he called that place Azah's-breath. As it is till to-day. David also feared God, from that day, and said "The Ark of God shall not come to me!" So David did not transfer the Ark to the City of David, but placed it in the House of Abd-adom, an officer in his Palace, and the Ark of God remained in the house of Abd-adom three months. But the Lord blessed the family of Abd-adom, and all who were with him.
14 Hiram King of Tzur afterwards sent Ambassadors to David, and Cedar timber, and masons, and carpenters to build him a Palace. Then David knew that the EVER-LIVING had fixed him as King over Israel.

3 David also took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters, and these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem:—

Shamma, and Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, Ibkhar, and Alishua, and Alifalat, and Nogah, and Nefeg, and Jafia, and Alishama, and Balida—

14 (1043 B.C.) Hiram of Tyre makes Friends with David.

(1047 B.C.) The Philistines assail David.

8 But the Philistim heard that David enjoyed the Kingship over all Israel, so the Philistim forces came up to seek David; but David heard it, and went out to meet them. Then the Philistim spread over the plain of Refaim. Therefore David enquired of GOD to ask "Shall I advance against the Philistim? And will You give them into my hand?" And the EVER-LIVING replied to him, "Advance! and I will give them into your hand."

Defeat of the Philistines.

11 They accordingly advanced to Baal-fratzim, and there David defeated them. So David exclaimed, "GOD has crushed my enemies by my hand, like a splash of water!" Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-pratzim, for they left their Gods there, whom David commanded to be burnt in fire.

13 But the Philistim collected again, and invaded the plain, when David again enquired of GOD, and GOD replied to him, "Do not advance on their van. Retreat from them. Then march on them from behind the Willowwood, and when you hear the sound of a movement in the tops of the Willows, then advance to battle, for the Divine Messengers will advance before you to defeat the forces of the Philistim."

15 David consequently did as GOD commanded, and defeated the forces of the Philistim from Gebaon as far as Gazer. Consequently the fame of 17 David went out to all countries, and the EVER-LIVING put a terror of him upon all the heathen.

(1042 B.C.) David Builds Zion, and brings up the Ark.

He afterwards made himself houses in the City of David, and formed a place for the Ark of GOD, and erected a tent for it. David, however said 2 "None should carry the Ark of GOD except the Levites, for the LORD chose them to carry the Ark, and to attend to it for ever."

(1042 B.C.) David and the Parliament of Israel bring up the Ark.

Consequently David convoked the 3 Parliament of Israel, at Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of GOD to the place he had constructed for it. David also assembled the Descendants of Aaron and the Levites with Aural the 5 Singer, and a hundred and twenty of his brothers of the Beni Kahit;

And Ashiah the Singer, and a 6 hundred and twenty of his brothers of the Beni Meri;

And Joal the Singer, and a hundred 7 and thirty of his brothers of the Beni Gershon;

And Shemiah the Singer with two 8 hundred of his brothers of the Beni Alizafan;

And Alial the Singer with eighty of 9 his brothers of the Beni Khaberai;

And Aminadab the Singer with a 10 hundred and twelve of his brothers of the Beni Azial.

David also invited Zadok and 11 Abiathar the Priests and the Levites, with Aural, Asiah, and Joal, Shamia, and Alial, and Aminadab, and said to 12 them:

"You are the Ancestral Chiefs of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, and your associates, and bring up the Ark of the EVER-LIVING GOD of Israel to the structure for it. Because, when 13 you were not preceding it, the LORD our GOD broke us, for you ought rightly to precede it."

The Priests and Levites consequently sanctified themselves for bringing up the Ark of the EVER-LIVING GOD of Israel, and the Levites carried the Ark of GOD as Moses ordered, according to the Command of the EVER-LIVING on their shoulders by the poles attached to it.

16 David also requested the Chiefs of the Levites to provide their associates, the Singers, with musical instruments;—lutes and harps, and resounding gongs and to arouse a sound of rejoicing. The Levites therefore appointed Himan-ben-Joal, and from his associates Asaph-ben-Berekiah; and from the Beni Merari, their relatives, Aithen-ben-Koshiah; and with them, from the Second rank, Zekeriah-ben-Jazial, and Shemiramoth, and Jahial, and Ani, Aliab, and Heniah, and Masiah, and Matithiah, and Alifelhuo, and Mikniab, and Ab-adom, and Jial, the Doorkeepers.

19 So the Singers, Himan, Asaph, and Aithin with Gongs of brass to sound;—
20 and Zekeriah, and Azial, and Shemiramoth, and Jakhial, and Ani, and Aliab, and Masiah, and Baniah, with lutes, accompanied the maidens; and Matithiah, and Alifelhuo, and Mikniab, and Ab-adom, and Jial, and Azizishuo, with harps, high pitched to perfection; and Kenanihuo the Chief of the Levites superintended the carrying from stage to stage, because he understood it. And Berekiah, and Alkanah were Guards for the Ark;—
23 and Shebaniah, and Joshafat, and Nethanial, and Amasi, and Zekeriha, and Benihuo, and Aliazar the Trumpeters,— Priests with trumpets sounded before the Ark of God, and Ab-adom and Jakhial were Guards of the Ark. But David and the Senators of Israel with the Generals, marched with the progress of the Ark of the Covenant of God from the house of Ab-adom rejoicing. And when the Levites lifted up the Ark of the Covenant of God to bear it, they sacrificed seven bullocks, and seven rams, and David, clothed in a white robe, with all the Levites who carried the Ark, and the Singers, and Kananiab, the leader, led the Singers, in union with David, in a white ephod.

All Israel also, cheered with a loud voice at the advance of the Ark of the Covenants of the EVER-LIVING, and sounded trumpets and drums, and resounding cymbals, with lutes and harps. But when the Ark of the 29 Covenant of the EVER-LIVING came to the City of David, and Mikal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David dancing and sporting, she despised him in her heart.

Thus they brought the Ark of the EVER-LIVING and deposited it in the centre of the Hall which David had constructed for it, and presented Burnt and Thank-offerings before God. When David had ceased from offering the Burnt and Thank-offerings, he blessed the People in the name of the EVER-LIVING. Then he distributed to every Israelite person, both men and women, a loaf of bread, and a plum cake.

He afterwards appointed some of the Levites to serve before the Ark of the EVER-LIVING, and to care for it and to give praise and to honour the EVER-LIVING God of Israel.— Asaph was their Chief and his Secondaries were Zekeriah, Jazal, and Shemiramoth, and Arkhial, and Matathiah, Aliab, and Beniah, and Ab-adom, and Jakhial, with instruments, Lutes, and Harps; and Asaph with resounding cymbals. Then 6 Beniah and Jakhial the Priests stood with trumpets before the Ark of the Covenant of God. On that day also David first ordained to give thanks to the LORD by the means of Asaph and his associates.

Psalm by David.

STANZA I.

Sing to the LORD, call on His name,
Proclaim His works among the Nations!
Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him,
Reflect on all His wonders!
In His Holy Name rejoice;
Glad-hearted seek the LORD;
Be strong, and follow the LORD.
Seek always for His presence,

1 Note.—Ch. 15, v. 22. Literally in Heb. “Kenaniab the Chief of the Levites superintended to carry,—to carry,—for he understood it” But it clearly means in English “super-intended from stage to stage” of the carrying.—F. F.
Remember the wonders done,
His proofs and the laws He made,
You race of Israel His servant,
You sons of Jacob His chosen.

STANZA 2.

He is OUR EVER-LIVING GOD,
His Laws are for all the Earth;
He always remembers His Treaty;—
For a thousand lives His word,
Which He for our fathers wrote,
And which He to Isaac swore,
And fixed the Decree to Jacob,
A lasting Bond with Israel;
To say, "I give you the Land,
To possess the borders of Canan";
When you were few in number,—
But few and strangers there,
When you wandered from Tribe to Tribe,
In the kingdom of foreign peoples,
He allowed them not to oppress,
But punished kings for your sakes;—
"Dare not to touch My anointed,
And do My Preachers no harm!"

STANZA 3.

Sing to the LORD all the Land,
And daily proclaim His Trust!
To the Nation proclaim His glory,
His wonders to all the Peoples!
For the LORD is Great and Grand,
And His Splendour beyond all Gods!
For the Pagan Gods are Idols;
But the LORD created the Heavens,
Before Him are honour and splendour.
In His dwelling are Power and Joy!

STANZA 4.

Proclaim the LORD, you clans of the People
Proclaim the LORD is Majestic and strong;
Proclaim that the LORD is Majestic
Exalt His Name with an offering,
And come, and bow down before Him,
To the LORD in this Holy Splendour!

STANZA 5.

All the earth revolves before Him,
Who fixed its unerring sphere!
Let the Skies proclaim to the Earth,—
Tell the Heathen, "The LORD is King!"
Let the Sea roar, and all its products,
The Fields rejoice, and all therein,
While the trees of the Wood are cheering,
Before the LORD who advances,
To establish Justice on Earth!

STANZA 6.

Oh, praise the LORD for His goodness,
For His Mercy endures for ever!
And exclaim, "Our GOD will save us—
Save, collect, and free from the Heathen,—
To honour Your Holy Name,
And exalt ourselves by Your praises!

STANZA 7. THE ENVOY.
"Thank Israel’s LIVING GOD,
From Ever, and on to for Ever!"
(Instructions to the Choir.) (All the People must reply.)
"Amen! And thanks to the LORD!"

36 In this manner he left Asaph and his companions to sing before the Ark of the Covenant of the EVER-LIVING, to sing always from day to day, with Abd-adom and sixty-eight of his associates. But Abd-adomben-Jeduthun and Hosah were the Doorkeepers. Zadok and his relatives were Priests before the Tabernacle of the EVER-LIVING at the Mound in Gibaon, to offer Burnt-offerings to the EVER-LIVING on the High Altar at Daybreak and Dusk, and for all written in the Laws of the LORD which He communicated to Israel. And Heyman and Jeduthun were with them, beside selected persons who were nominated to praise the EVER-LIVING, for His eternal mercy.

37 While Heyman and Jeduthun accompanied with trumpets and resounding gongs, and musical instru-m ents to GOD, with the sons of Jeduthun as attendants.

38 Then all the Parliament of the People returned each to his own home, when David proceeded to bless his own House.

(1041 B.C.) David proposes to Build a Temple.

17 But when David was settled in his own House, David said to Nathan the Preacher, "See, I am residing in a Palace of Cedar, but the Ark of the Covenant of the EVER-LIVING is under curtains!"

2 When Nathan replied to David,
"Do whatever is in your heart, for GOD is with you."

3 But when it was night, a Message from GOD came to Nathan, to say;

4 "Go and say to David my Servant,
thus says the EVER-LIVING;

5 "You shall not build me a permanent House!—For I have not rested in a house from the day when I brought Israel up from the Mitzeraim to this day; but I have gone from Tent to Tent, and Tabernacle.—

36 Wherever I marched with all Israel, have I spoken a word to one of the Judges of Israel, whom I commanded to Shepherd my People, asking, ‘Why have you not built me a Palace of Cedar?’—Therefore, now, say this to my Servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of Hosts, I took you from the Pastures, from following the sheep,
to be a Leader over my People of Israel. And I have been with you, wherever you went, and have defeated
all your enemies before you, and have made you famous equal to the renown of the GREAT on the earth.
I am also preparing a place for My People of Israel and am planting it, to dwell under itself and it shall ever cease, and the sons of evil shall not continue to injure it as formerly, from the days when I ordered the appointment of Judges over my People of Israel. I will also subject all your enemies. And I tell you further, the EVER-LIVING will build your house; and when you:
i11 days are filled to go to your fathers,
I will establish an heir after you, who shall be from your own sons, and fix him in his kingship. He shall build 12 Me a House, and I will fix his Throne for Ever. I will be a Father to him, and He shall be a Son to Me, and I will not turn My affection away from him, as I turned it from him who was before you, for I will appoint him in My House and in My Kingdom for Eternity, and his Throne shall be constructed for Eternity.’"

Nathan related all these promises, 15
and all this Vision to David.

David thanks God for his Success.

King David consequently went, 16
and sat before the LORD and said;—

"Who am I, EVER-LIVING GOD,
and what is my House, that You have brought me so far? But, GOD, that was little in Your eyes, for You have promised to Your Servant’s House for the future, and have looked upon me as exalted above Mankind.
EVER-LIVING GOD, what has David ever added to You, that You should honour Your servant? for You know 19 Your servant! EVER-LIVING, according to Your own heart You have done all these great things for Your servant! LORD, there is none like You! There is no GOD except Yourself, from all we have heard with our ears.

20 And who is like Your People of Israel? A singular People in the earth, whom GOD went to redeem for Himself. A People to bear Your great and terrible NAME, which advanced before Your People, whom You redeemed from the heathen

21 Mitseraim; and have made Israel Your People for ever! And You, EVER-LIVING, have been a GOD to them.

22 “But now, LORD, the Promise that You have promised to Your servant and to his house, let it be firm for ever, and do according to Your promise! You! let it be firm, and enlarge Your NAME for ever, by the declaration that the LORD of HOSTS, the GOD of Israel, is the GOD for Israel; and that the House of David, Your Servant, is fixed before You for ever. For You LORD have revealed it to Your servant, that you will build him a house, and therefore let Your servant find his heart to pray before You. For You are the EVER-LIVING GOD Who has promised this benefit to Your servant; as now You have been pleased to bless the House of Your servant to continue before You for ever,—so You, the EVER-LIVING, have blessed and will bless it for ever!”

(About 1040 B.C.) David subdues Philistia.

18 It was subsequently to this that David defeated the Philistia, and subdued them, and captured Gath and its villages from the hands of the Philistia.

2 He then defeated Moab; and the Moabites became subjects of David, paying a tribute.

(About 1039 B.C.)

3 David afterwards defeated Hadadezer, King of Zobah, as he marched to establish his power beyond the River Frath, when David captured 4 from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand infantry. But David destroyed all the chariots, only reserving a hundred chariots from them.

But the Arami of Damask came to 5 assist Hadadezer, King of Zobah, when David slew twenty-two thousand in Aram. David afterwards settled Damascanian Aram, and Aram 6 became subject to David, paying a tribute.

Thus the LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

David, however, took the shields 7 of gold which the guards of Hadadezer carried and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Tibkhath, and 8 Kan, cities of Hadadezer, David took a very great quantity of brass, of which Solomon made the Brazen Sea, and the Columns and Instruments of brass.

When Thaw the King of Hamath 9 heard that David had defeated all the forces of Hadadezer, King of Zobah, he sent Hadoram his son, to 10 King David, to wish him health, and to congratulate him about how he had conquered Hadadezer, and defeated all his men. Thaw had been at war with Hadadezer; and he sent vessels of gold, silver, and brass. These also King David dedicated to 11 the LORD, with the silver and gold which was paid by all the Nations. By Edom, and Moab, and the Beni-Amon, and from the Philishtim, and from the Amalakites.

Abish-ben-Zeruiah also defeated 12 eighteen thousand of Edom in the Salt-vale. He then put garrisons in 13 Edom, and all Edom became subject to David, and the LORD gave David victory wherever he went, so David 14 reigned over all Israel, and brought Justice and Right to all the People.

Joab-ben-Zeruiah commanded the 15 Army; and Jhoshafat-ben-Akhihil was Secretary of State; and 16 Zadok-ben-Akhitub, and Abimelek-ben-Abiathar were Priests; and Shamsa, Secretary; and Beniah-ben-Jeloada was over the Guards and Light Infantry, and the sons of David were the Princes at the side of the King.

(1037 B.C.) The Beni-Amon Insult David's Ambassadors.

It was after this that Naksh, King of the Beni-Amon, died, and his son reigned after him.

19 So David said, "I will show friendship to Hanun the son of Naksh, for his father showed friendship to me." David consequently sent Ambassadors to console him about his father. David's Officers accordingly went to the country of the Beni-Amon to Hanun to console him.

3 But the Princes of the Beni-Amon said to Hanun, "Does David honour your father in your sight that he sends you presents? Have not his Officers come to you with the object of examining, and inspecting, and surveying the country?"

4 Consequently Hanun seized David's Officers and shaved them, and cut off their robes half way up their buttocks, and sent them away! So they sent and informed David about those persons, and he sent to meet them, for they had been grievously outraged. Therefore the king commanded, "Stay at Jericho until your beards are grown."

5 When the Beni-Amon, however, saw that they had insulted David, Hanun sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for himself chariots and cavalry from Aram-tween-rivers, and from Aram of the Plain, and from the Zobah, and hired with them thirty-two thousand Charioteers and the King of the Plain and his Forces, and advanced and encamped before Medeba, where the Beni-Amon were collected from their towns. From there they advanced to the war.

Joab Ordered to Resist the Beni-Amon and Allies.

8 But David heard it, and sent Joab and the Generals of the Army.

9 The Beni-Amon then drew out for battle opposite the City; with the kings, who had come to help them, separately in the open field. Joab consequently perceived that a Double Battle was before him;—on his front and rear. He therefore selected all the Israelite soldiers and disposed them to meet Aram; and put the rest of the forces into the hands of his brother Abishai, whom he ordered to meet the Beni-Amon; and said; 12 "If the Aramites are too strong for me, come and help me to defeat them. But if the Beni-Amon are too strong for you, I will rescue you. Be bold and resolute for our People, and for the City of our God;—and let the LORD do what is best in His sight."

Then Joab, and the force that was with him advanced to the front of the Aramites to fight, and they fled before him. And when the Beni-Amon saw that Aram fled, they also ran from the face of Abishai, his brother, and entered the City.

Joab afterwards returned to Jerusalem.

The Aramians Ally with the Mesopotamians.

But Aram, seeing that they had been defeated by Israel, sent Ambassadors who went to Aram-over-the-River, and hired the General of Hadadezer to help them. But this was reported to David, so he collected the Forces of Israel and passed over the Jordan, and advanced against them, when they arrayed against him, and David disposed his army to meet Aram in battle, and they fought with him. But Aram fled before Israel, and David slew seven thousand Charioteers and forty thousand Infantry, and killed Shofek the Commander of their army. But when the officers of Hadadezer saw that they were worsted by Israel, they made peace with David, and were subject to him; and the Aramites were unwilling to assist the Beni-Amon again.

(1036 B.C.) Joab Ravages the Beni-Amon.

When the period of the year came round,—the season for Generals to march out,—Joab led out the strength of the army and ravaged the country of the Beni-Amon. Then he went and besieged Rabah. But David stayed in Jerusalem; so Joab assaulted Rabah and stormed it.

1 Note.—Ch. 19, v. 16. Mesopotamia, and Babylonia, so afterwards called by the Greeks.—F. F.
2 Then David took the turban which was of the value of a talent of gold from off the King's head. There was also a precious stone in it, and it was placed on the head of David. They also brought very much plunder from the city, and brought out the people who were in it, and appointed them to the Mines, and to the Iron-works, and Sawpits. David did the same to all the cities of the Beni-Amon. David then returned to Jerusalem.

(7035 B.C.) The Philistines Revolt.

4 It was after this that a battle occurred near Ghezar with the Philishim, when Sibki, the Khushati, defeated Siph, of the race of the Repha.

5 There was war again with the Philishim, when Alkhanan-ben-Jaur slew Lakhumi, the brother of Goliath of Gath, whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

6 There was again war with Gath, and a man came out from there, a giant, whose fingers and toes were six and six,—twenty-four; and he was of the race of the Repha; and he challenged Israel. But Jhonathan-ben-Shimaa, the brother of David, defeated him. These were born of the Repha at Gath, but they fell by the hand of David, or by the hand of his Officers.

(1017 B.C.) David Orders a Conscription for the Army.

21 Then Satan arose against Israel, and incited David to make a conscription of Israel. So David said to Joab, and the Generals of the Forces, “Go, conscript Israel from Barsheba to Dan. Then come to me, that I may know the number.”

3 But Joab replied;—“May the Lord add to his People, that they may become a hundred-fold. Are they not all your Royal Majesty’s? Your Majesty’s servants? So why does his Majesty desire this? May not Israel be offended at this?”

4 Yet the command of the king prevailed over Joab. So Joab went out and travelled to every part of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem, where Joab reported the number of the forces,—enrolled for David. And the Forces of Israel were One Million, One Hundred thousand men, disciplined to arms; and of Judah, Four Hundred and seventy Thousand men, disciplined to arms. But Levi and Benjamin were not enrolled amongst them, for Joab was disgraced at the command of the king. This command was also wrong in the sight of God, so He struck Israel.

Then David said to God “I sinned greatly when I did that thing. But now I pray You to pass over the fault of Your servant, for I have been very foolish.”

The Lord therefore spoke to Gad, David’s Seer, and said;

“Go to David and announce,—Thus says the Ever-Living, I will present three things to you. Choose one from them,—and I will do it for you!”

Gad consequently went to David, and said to him, “Thus says the Ever-Living; Choose for yourself! Either three years of Famine; or three years of flight before your assailants, and the sword of your triumphant enemies; or three days of the Sword of the Lord! with a plague in the country, and the Messenger of the Lord exterminating the forces of Israel? Reflect, therefore, on the answer I am to return to my Sender?”

And David replied to Gad, “It is very difficult for me. I would rather fall into the hand of the Ever-Living—for His mercies are many,—but I would not fall into the hand of Man!”

The Lord therefore sent a plague to Israel, and seventy thousand of Israel fell. The Lord also sent the Divine Messenger to Jerusalem to afflict it; but as he was about to afflict it, the Lord looked, and had pity over the flock, and said to the Messenger, “You have punished enough! Now restrain your hand.”

But the Messenger of the Lord stood opposite the Granary of Arnan the Jebusite; and David lifted his 16 eyes and saw the Messenger of the Lord standing between the Earth and the Skies, with his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem! And David and his Counsellors, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces, and David said, to GOD; "Was it not I alone who commanded to conscript for the Forces? I am the one who has sinned, and have committed the wrong;—but, these sheep,—what have they done? EVER-LIVING GOD! Let Your hand, I beg, be upon me;—and do not afflict Your people!"

18 So the Messenger of the EVER-LIVING commanded Gad, to order David, to go up and raise an Altar to the EVER-LIVING at the Granary of Arnann the Jebusite. David consecutively went there at the command of Gad, which he uttered in the name of the LORD. Arnann also turned and saw the King,—and he and his four sons who were with him, hid themselves;—for Arnann was threshing wheat. But David advanced to Arnann, when Arnann peeped and saw David, so came out from the Granary, and bowed to David, inclining his face towards the earth.

22 David then asked Arnann,—"Will you sell me the site of the Granary? For I wish to build an Altar to the EVER-LIVING. You shall sell it to me for full money value, so that the affliction may be removed from the Forces."

23 But Arnann replied to David, "Take it for yourself. And let my Lord the King do what is fair in his opinion. Look! I also give the Bullocks for Burnt-offerings, and the wood of the Thrashing-machine, and the wheat as a Bread-gift.—I will give the whole."

24 King David, however, answered to Arnann, "No!—But I will purchase it for full money value, for I will not offer your property to the EVER-LIVING, and thus sacrifice a costless sacrifice."

25 So David paid Arnann for the place six hundred gold shekels as the price.1

1 Note.—Ch. 21, v. 25. About £1,082 sterling in bullion, at £4 per ounce, but its purchasing value would be enormously greater, if we consider that a slave in the prime of youth, 20 to 30 years of age, was then only worth £3 10s. sterling at bullion weight, that is 50 shekels of silver. In our day a slave of the same sort would have been on an American Slave Mart worth £200. I note this to show that David's Sacrifice was no slight affair, as the obsolete language of A.V. and R.V. leaves the impression, as it also does in many other places. I may add to remove a difficulty often raised, that in 2 Samuel, Ch. 24, v. 23 the price is stated at "Fifty shekels of money," but here "Six hundred of gold." I suggest that the writer of "Chronicles," to show to the men of his day the cost of David's offering, calculated out the purchasing value of 50 shekels in David's time and its equivalent in the period he wrote, about the Third Century before Christ. We ought to recollect the depreciation in the value of bullion caused by the Importations of Solomon, and others, into southern Asia of the vast amount of Gold from Africa, between the days of David and the writer of Chronicles.—F. F.
son Solomon and instructed him in the plan to build the Temple to the EVER-LIVING God of Israel.

7 David also said to his son Solomon, "I had it in my heart to build a Temple to the name of the EVER-LIVING God myself, but there came to me a message from the EVER-LIVING to say, 'You have shed much blood upon the earth, and have made great wars. You shall not build a Temple to My Name, for you have shed much blood upon the earth before Me. —However, there is your child,—he will be a Man of Peace and I will make quiet for him from all his enemies around. Therefore his name shall be Solomon, and I will make Peace and Security over Israel in his days. —He shall build a Temple to My Name; and he shall be a son to Me,—and I will be a father to him, and I will fix the Throne of his Kingship over Israel for ever.'

8 "Now my son, may God be with you for ever, and make you prosper; that you may build the Temple of your EVER-LIVING God, as He promised about you. Yes! May the EVER-LIVING give you intelligence, and understanding, and instruct you about Israel. Guard also, the Laws of your EVER-LIVING God. You will then prosper, if you guard the Institutions and Decrees that the EVER-LIVING communicated to Moses for Israel. Be bold, and brave; fear not; and be not depressed; for see how in my difficulties I have prepared for the House of the EVER-LIVING, a hundred thousand talents of Gold, a million talents of Silver; I have no weights however of the Brass and Iron, but they are plentiful. I have also provided cedar timber and stones, and you can add to them. And you have with you plenty of workmen for the work. Masons and mechanics in stone and wood, and they are all skilful at every work. And for the gold, and silver, and brass, and iron—it is boundless! —Rise and act! and may the EVER-LIVING be with you."

17 David also ordered all the Nobles of Israel to assist his son Solomon.

"Is not your EVER-LIVING God with you? And He will cause rest all round you, for He has given the populations of the land to my hand, and the land is subdued before the EVER-LIVING and before His People! Therefore give your hearts and minds to seek your EVER-LIVING God; and rise and build the Sanctuary of your EVER-LIVING God, and bring the Ark of the Covenant of the EVER-LIVING, and the Sacred Vessels of God to the Temple that will be built to the Name of the EVER-LIVING."

(1015 B.C.) David Crowns Solomon as Victor.

But David grew old and satiated 23 with days, so he crowned Solomon his son over Israel, when all the 2 Princes of Israel assembled, with the Priests and Levites.

A Census of the Levites Taken.

Then the Levites were numbered, 3 from thirty years old and upwards; and the number of men on their Registers was thirty-eight thousand. Twenty-four thousand of these were 4 appointed over the works of the Temple of the EVER-LIVING, and six thousand as Superintendents and Overseers. With four thousand as 5 Guards; and four thousand praised the EVER-LIVING with instruments that were made for praise.

Brigading the Levite Houses.

But David divided them into Divisions, Of the Beni Levi; the Beni Gershon; Kohath; and Merari.

Of the Gershonites,—Zallon and 7 Shimi;

Of the Beni Ladan, the Head was 8 Jakhia, with Zitham and Joel as Officers;

Of the Beni Shemi, Shelomoth, and 9 Khazial, and Kharan as Officers. Those were the Heads of the Ancestral Houses of Shemi. There were also of the Beni Shemi, 10 Jakhath, Zinah, Jaush, and Beriah. These four were of the Beni Shemi. But Jakhath was the Head, and 11 Zinah the Second, and Jaush, and Beriah, had not many sons, so they were as an Ancestral House Registered on one.

The Beni Kohath; Amram, Itzahr, 12 Khabron, Azial,—four.
13 The Beni Amram; Aaron, and Moses.—But Aaron was separated to Sanctification. He and his sons were strictly Consecrated for ever to offer incense before the EVER-LIVING, and to serve Him, and to bless in His Name for ever.

14 The Sons of Moses the Man of God, however, were enumerated with the Tribe of Levi.
15 The sons of Moses, were, Gershon and Aliazer;
16 Of the sons of Gershon; Shebual, was the Chief.
17 And the sons of Aliazer were Rekhabiah, the Chief, and Aliazer had no other sons. But the sons of Rekhabiah, were too many to recount;
18 Of the sons of Itzahar Shelomith was the Chief;
19 Of the sons of Khabron Jerihu was the Chief; Amariah the Second; Jakhaziah the Third; and Jakmas the Fourth;
20 Of the sons of Azial, Mikah was the Chief; and Ishiah, the Second;
21 Of the sons of Merari were Makhli and Mushii;
22 The sons of Makhli were Alazar;
23 and Kish. But Alazar died and had no sons,—only daughters,—and their cousans the sons of Kish married them.
24 The sons of Mushii were three, Makhli, and Adar and Jermoth;
25 These were the Ancestral Houses of the Beni Levi, according to the entries in the record of the names on their Registers. They administered the affairs of the services of the House of the EVER-LIVING, on arriving at twenty years old and upwards.

"For" David said, "the EVER-LIVING GOD of Israel will bring comfort to His People of Israel, and they will dwell in Jerusalem for ever; so the Levites will not be needed to carry the Tabernacles, and all the instruments of His Services." Therefore by the last commands of David, the Beni Levi from twenty years old and upwards were registered. Their Station was to assist the Beni Aaron in the Services of the House of the EVER-LIVING in the Courts and in the Chambers, and in the Purificatories for all the Sacred things; and to do the work of the House of GOD; and about the Show-bread, and fine flour for the Food-offering both of the Unfermented Biscuits and Food-offering; and about the confections, and all the liquids, and the vestments. And also to stand from Morning to Morning to thank and praise the EVER-LIVING and the same at Dusk.

And in all the Burnt Offerings burnt to the EVER-LIVING on the Days of Rest; and the New-moons; and to record the Festivals according to the Decree laid upon them,—to be continually in the presence of the EVER-LIVING. They also formed the Guards of the Hall of Assembly; and the Guards of the Sanctuary; and the Guards of the Beni Aaron, their relatives, when serving in the House of the EVER-LIVING.

The Duties of the Family of Aaron.

Now for the arrangements for the 24 Beni Aaron.

The sons of Aaron were, Nadab, and Abihu, Aliazar, and Aithamar. But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no sons, therefore Aliazar and Aithamar were Priests.

But David arranged, that, from the 3 Beni Aliazar, Zadok,—and from the Beni Aithamar, Akimalek, should be appointed for the Services. But 4 more of the Beni Aliazar were advanced to be men of power, than from the Beni Aithamar. Consequently there were assigned to the Beni Aliazar, as Heads of Houses, sixteen; and to the Beni Aithamar, as Heads of Houses, eight. They were, however, assigned by lots, one with another; so that there were Princes of the SANCTUARY, and Princes of GOD, both from the Beni Aliazar, and the Beni Aithamar. And Shemiahben-Nathanal the Secretary recorded them from among the Levites in the presence of the King and his Officers, and of Zadok the Priest and Akimalekben-Abiathar.

And for the Ancestral Princes of the Priests and Levites, one Ancestral House was taken from Aliazar, and one taken from Aithamar, when the first lot came out to Jhoiairib; the second to Jedaijah; the third to 8 Kharim; the fourth to Sarim; the 9 fifth to Malakiah; the sixth to Shishi; the seventh to Akotz; the eighth to 10 Abiah; the ninth to Jeshua; the 11 tenth to Shikaniah; the eleventh to 12 Aliashib; the twelfth to Jakim; the 13 thirteenth to Khufah; the fourteenth to Jeshebab; the fifteenth to Bilgah; 15 to the sixteenth to Shishah; the seventeenth to Khezir; the eighteenth to Haftzitz; the nineteenth to Fethiah; 17 to the twentieth to Ikhezekel; the twenty-first to Jakim; the twenty-second to Gamul; the twenty-third to Deliah; the twenty-fourth to Maziah.

Attendants Appointed for the Temple.

19 These were appointed to be their duties:
   To enter the House of the LORD, as instructed by the hand of their ancestor Aaron, as he was instructed by the EVER-LIVING GOD of Israel.
20 But to the others of the Beni Levi:
   —from the Beni Amram, Shubal:
   from the Beni Shubal, Jahdiah;
21 From Rekhabiah,—from the Beni Rekhabiah,—the Chief Ishiah.
22 From the Itzarites,—Shelomith;
   from the Beni Shilomith,—Jakhath.
23 Of the Beni Jeriah, Amariah was second; Jakhziel the third; Jekamam, the fourth.
24 From the Beni Azial, Mikah; from the Beni Mikah, Shamor; with the brother of Mikah, Ishiah; from the sons of Ishiah,—Zekeriah.
26 From the Beni Merari, Makhli and Mushli, from the sons of Jaziah, his son.
27 From the Beni Merari, also were Jaziah; Beno; and Sham; and Zakur; and Abri.
28 From the Mahlites,—Alazath; who had no sons.
29 From Kish,—of the Beni Kish,—Irakhamel;
30 From the Beni Mushli,—Maklhi; and Adar; and Jeremoth.
   These were from the Beni Levi, by Ancestral Houses, who also threw their dice along with their relatives of the Beni Aaron, before King David, and Zadok, and Akimalet, and the Ancestral Chiefs, for the Priests; and with the Ancestral Chiefs for the Levites, along with their lower relatives.

(1015 B.C.) David and the Generals Nominate the Singers.

25 David and the Generals of the Army selected also some of the sons of Asaph, and Heyman, and Jeduthun, the reciters with harps, lutes, and cymbals, and a certain number of men to perform regularly:

   From the sons of Heyman;—Heyman, Bukihu, Mathaniah, Azial, Shebual, and Jeremoth; Khanani, Aliathah, Gidalti, and Romamti; Azar, Jashbakshah, Malathi, Hothir, Makazith; who 5 were all sons of Heyman, the King's Seer, in discourse with God. (They played the horn, for God had given Heyman fourteen sons and three daughters. All of them were under 6 the hand of their father, to sing in the House of the EVER-LIVING with Cymbals, Lutes, and Harps, for the Service of the House of God.
   Asaph, and Jeduthun and Heyman 7 were under the control of the King.
   The whole number of the Trained Singers to the EVER-LIVING with their associates, was two hundred and eighty-eight. They also threw 8 lots for their mutual Offices, whether small or great,—both the teachers and the scholars.
   But the First lot came out for 9 Asaph and Joseph; the second for Gedaliah,—for him and his companions,—for his sons were twelve;

31 And the twenty-fourth to Azer, and his twelve sons and companions.

8 All these were from the Beni Abd-adom.

And lots were thrown for the lowest to the highest positions in their Ancestral Houses, for each of the Gates.

Shelomoth and his brother were over the Consecrated Treasuries, which were Consecrated by King David, and the Ancestral Chiefs, which the Generals and Officers of the Army had consecrated, out of the prize-money, and out of their plunder to help towards the House of the EVER-LIVING.
With all that had been consecrated by Samuel the Seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner, -ben- Ner, and Joab, ben-Zeruiah, had consecrated, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brother.

29 From the Itzahri, Khananihu, and his sons were appointed for the exterior affairs over Israel, in the Magistracy, and in Judicial matters.

30 From the Khalroni; Khashabiah, and for his assistants, one thousand seven hundred skilful men were appointed in Israel, from beyond Jordan to the west, for all the affairs of the Ever-living, and the affairs of the King.

Of the Levites, Khashabiah, ben.

17 Ramual; with Zadok for the Aromites.

1 NOTE.—Ch. 27, v. 4. The Hebrew text of this verse seems to have been completely blundered by some very ancient transcriber. As it stands in the current Hebrew there is no connected sense in the succession of words—in fact they are contradictory. The Septuagint translators by making the word ὁ λόθεος, "m’kloth,” read as a proper name, instead of taking it as a noun in its sense of a “Mace,” “Staff,” or “Club,” still further confused the meaning. I would suggest that the words—ἁλθαὶ “umlokhtho,” for ὁ λόθος “umkloth”—are a blundering repetition of “umkloth,” (“The Division”), or if not that, then we ought to read and translate the verse thus—“Dodi, the Akhokhite, Commanded the Second Division, who were Mace-men, and that Division was twenty-four thousand.”

We then see the purport to be clear, instead of the current absurdity of the usually-accepted reading.—F. F.
18 Of Judah, Olihu, from the brothers of David;
    Of Issakar, Amri, ben-Mikal;
19 Of Zebulon, Ishamihu, ben-Abadihu;
    Of Maphthali, Jeremoth, ben-Azrial;
20 Of the Ephraim, Hosha, ben-Azathi;
    Of the Half-Tribe of Menasseh, Joel, ben-Pedihu;
21 Of the Half-Tribe of Menasseh in Gilad, Ido, ben-Zekarihu;
    Of Benjamin, Jashiah, ben-Abner;
22 Of Dan, Azaral, ben-Jerokham;—
    Those were the Princes of the Tribes of Israel.

23 For David did not raise by the conscription from twenty years of age and upwards for the troops, although the EVER-LIVING had promised to increase Israel like the stars of the skies.

24 Joab, ben-Zeruiah did begin to conscript, but did not finish. But because of that there was anger against Israel; therefore the conscription was never recorded among the events of times of King David.

25 Azimuth, ben-Adial was Superintend-ent of the Royal Treasuries. Jhonathan, ben-Abi, was Superintend-ent of the Stores in the country, in the towns, in the villages, and fortresses.

26 And Arri, ben-Kelub was Superintend-ent over the works in the country and cultivators of the ground.

27 Shimi the Rahmathi was Superintend-ent of the vineyards, and oliveyards, with Zabdi the Shifami for the wine stores.

28 Bal-Khanan the Gaderi was Superintend-ent of the Oliveyards, and the Sycamore Groves that were on the slopes, with Joash over the Oil Stores.

29 Shitri, the Sharoni was Superintend-ent of the flocks pastured in Sharon: with Shafut, ben-Adali over the herds in the plain.

30 Aubil, the Ishmaelite, was Superintend-ent of the Camels, with Jedihu, the Meronothi over the Asses.

31 Jaziz, the Hagari, was Superintend-ent of the flocks. All these were Controllers of the property that David possessed.

32 Jhonathan, the Uncle of David, was Prime Minister. He was a man of understanding and a scholar. And Ikhial, ben-Hakmoni was Tutor of the King's Sons. But Akhithoefel was 33 the King's Privy Councillor, and Hushi, the Arkite, was the King's friend.

And after Akhithoefel were Jhioada, 34 ben-Benihiu, and Abiathah, while Joab was Commander of the Army.

(1015 B.C.) David Assembles the Nobles and Army to Confirm Solomon's Election.

David assembled all the Officers of 28 Israel; the Chiefs of Tribes; and the Generals of the Divisions in the King's service; with the Colonels of Regiments, and Captains of Companies; and the Officers of all the King's cattle; and his own sons with their attendants; and Staff-officers; and all the powerful men, to Jerusalem;—

Then King David stood up on his 2 feet and said:—

"Listen to me, My Friends, and My People!—I had in my heart to build a House of Rest for the Ark of the Covenant of the EVER-LIVING, and as a stool for the feet of our God! And I had prepared to build it;—

"But GOD said to me, 'You shall not build a House to My Name! For you have been a man of War,—and have shed blood.'

"Yet the EVER-LIVING GOD of Israel chose me from all my father's family to be King over Israel for ever!—For He chose Judah to lead, —and in the House of Judah He chose the House of my father,—and from the sons of my father He was pleased to cause me to be crowned over all Israel!

"And of all my sons, (for the 5 EVER-LIVING has given me many sons,) He has chosen Solomon, my son, to sit upon the throne of the Kingship from the EVER-LIVING over Israel; and said to me, 'Your son Solomon shall build My House and My Courts, for I have chosen him for Myself as a son, and I will be a father to him.

"'I will also found his Kingship 7 for ever;—If he is firm to guard My Instructions, and Decrees, as he does at present.'

"So now, in the sight of all Israel, 8 —the Congregation of the EVER-LIVING,—and in the hearing of our God,—preserve and examine all the Commands of your Ever-living God, so that you may possess this beautiful country, and transmit it to your children after you for ever.

9 “And, you, Solomon my son, recognize the God of your father, and serve Him with a willing heart and delighted mind; for the Ever-living examines all hearts, and all the ideas devised by the mind.—If you seek Him,—you will find Him; but if you abandon Him, He will fling you off for ever!

10 “Therefore reflect; for the Ever-living has chosen you to build a House and Sanctuary.—Be brave and do it!"

(1015 B.C.) David hands Solomon the plans for the Temple in Public view.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the plans for the Portico with its buildings, and stores and staircases, and the private chambers; and the House of the Mercy-seat; with the drawings of all that was in his mind for the Courts of the House of the Ever-living; with all the lodges around; and the Treasuries of the House of God, and the Treasuries for the Sacred things.

12 With the Courses for the Priests and Levites, and all who conduct the Services of the House of the Ever-living; as well as for all the furniture of the House of the Ever-living.

13 With Gold by weight, for all the golden vessels of the Service; and Silver by weight for all vessels of the Services, for every kind of Service;

14 And a weight of Gold for the Lampstand, and golden reflectors. Weighed for lamp by lamp and reflector by reflector. With a weight of Silver for each lamp and its reflector, to be used lamp by lamp.

15 With a weight of Gold for the Tables of Show-bread, table by table, and Silver for the tables of silver;

16 And for the hooks and basins of pure gold; and for the Golden Expiatories, by weight, Expiatory by Expiatory, and for Silver Expiatories, by weight Expiatory by Expiatory.

17 And for the Altar of Incense, refined Gold by weight; with gold for the construction of the carriage of the overshadowing Kerubim, who protected the Ark of the Covenant of the Ever-living.

18 “The whole are described; I have described them from having the hand of the Ever-living upon me, causing me to understand all the results of these plans.”

Then David said to Solomon his son; 20 “Be brave and bold! and fear not, nor be depressed, for the Ever-living God, my God will be with you; He will not leave nor abandon you, until the completion of all the works and labours for the House of the Ever-living.

21 “And here are the Courses for the Priests and Levites, and for all the Services of the House of God. Besides you have with you for every work, every kind of skilled intelligence and all kinds of operatives, and the Nobles of the People will support you in everything.”

King David also said to all the Meeting; “The One God has chosen Solomon my son for Himself; but he is a youth and tender, and the business is great,—for the effort is not for Man, but for the Living God. “However, I have prepared with all my power for the House of God, Gold, for the Golden; and Silver, for the Silvern; and Brass, for the Brazen; Iron, for the Iron; and Timber for the Wooden; Onyx-stones for setting; and variegated Marble; and all kinds of precious stones, and plenty of White-marble.

“And since I have delighted in the House of my God, I have by me a private store of Gold and Silver,—which I give to the House of my God, in addition to all I have provided, for the Holy House.

“There are three thousand talents of Gold; four of the refined Gold of Aufer; and seven thousand talents of pure refined Silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings.

“The Gold, for gilding; and the Silver for silvering; and for any wages paid to the workmen.—And whoever has a will for the business, let him hand himself to the Ever-living to-day!”

A Public Subscription to the Temple.

Then the Ancestral Chiefs, and the Chiefs of the Tribes of Israel;
and the Colonels and Captains of Companies, and Chiefs of the Royal Affairs, gave to the works for the House of the EVER-LIVING, five thousand talents of Gold, and ten thousand dariks, and ten thousand talents of Silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8. While those who possessed jewels gave them to the Treasury of the House of the EVER-LIVING, into the custody of Jakhia the Gershoni.

So the People were glad, on account of their contributions, for they contributed with a willing heart to the EVER-LIVING, and King David also rejoiced with great delight.

Then David blessed the EVER-LIVING in the sight of all the Meeting, and David exclaimed;—

STANZA 1.

"Blessed be You, the EVER-LIVING,—
The GOD of our Father Israel,—
From Eternity to Eternity!
With You LORD, is Greatness, and Power,
And beauty, and splendour, and glory!
For all the Heavens and the Earth are Yours, LORD!
The Government, and Exaltation,
And Headship of all!"

STANZA 2.

"Therefore, our GOD, we all thank You,
And praise Your Majestic Name.
For who am I, and who are my People,
That we are able freely to give like this?
For all comes from You,—"

STANZA 3.

"To You we only give Your own!
For we are only travellers before You,
And lodgers, as all our fathers were!
Our days are like a shadow on the Earth,
And are without hope!"

STANZA 4.

"LORD our GOD all this wealth that is given.
To build a House to Your Name,
As Your Sanctuary, was from Your hand,
And is all Yours.

STANZA 5.

"As I know my GOD,
That You refine the heart,
And delight in uprightness,
I, in trueness of heart,
Have given all this;
And now I have seen Your People,
Here give gladly to You,
LORD, the GOD of our fathers,
Abraham, Isaac, and Israel.
Oh! keep them for ever,

1 Note.—Ch. 29, v. 7. The mention of "Dariks," a Persian coin, fixes the date of the writing of the "Chronicles," named in Hebrew "The Events of Time," as being after the return from the Captivity; and lends a support to my view given in a former Note, that in the values of moneys the historian brought them into scale with the purchasing values of his own day, and does not give them as in the period of David. This fact accounts for the Hebrew editors of the Second Temple putting Chronicles as the last book of the Books in the Bible.—F. F.
And fix in the People's minds
    Their thoughts upon You!
And give to my son Solomon,
A heart to regard Your Commands,
Your Proofs and Decrees,
To work and build this Temple,
    As I have prepared."

Then David said to all the Assembly;
    "Bless now your EVER-LIVING GOD."

And all the Meeting blessed the EVER-LIVING GOD of their fathers, and lowered their heads, and reverenced to the EVER-LIVING, and the King.

They then afterwards sacrificed sacrifices to the EVER-LIVING; and burned Burnt-offerings to the EVER-LIVING, with Food-offerings on that day; a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their Drink-offerings, with numerous sacrifices from all Israel.

And ate and drank before the EVER-LIVING, on that day, with great delight.

(1015 B.C.) Solomon's Election Confirmed by the Parliament.

They also again elected Solomon the son of David, King for the second time, and consecrated him to the EVER-LIVING as LEADER, and Zadok as Priest.

Solomon, consequently sat on the Throne of the LORD as King, in place of his father David, and the Parliament of Israel obeyed him, with all the Nobles, and Generals; and the sons of David placed their hands under Solomon as King.

The EVER-LIVING afterwards greatly exalted Solomon in the eyes of all Israel, and gave him honour and Majesty, such as had not been upon any King before him in Israel.

Thus David, - ben - Jessai reigned 26 over all Israel.

He was King over all Israel for a 27 period of forty years; Reigning in Hebron for seven years, and reigning in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

Then he died with good grey hairs, 28 and satiated with days, wealth and honour; and Solomon his son reigned after him.

The achievements of King David from first to last can be seen recorded in the History of Samuel, the Seer, and in the History of Nathan, the Reciter, and in the History of Gad, the Preacher, as well as all his Kingship, and Heroism, and Vicissitudes that passed over him, and over Israel, and over all the Kingdoms of the Countries.
